Petitioner states: One of Mary's children, Warren Leslie Davis, has filed a petition to remove her as executor of the decedent's estate.

Status report:

- Decedent died testate a resident of the County of Tulare, CA. Petitioner, as the anticipated trustee of the testamentary trusts to be established upon distribution of the decedent's estate, is the sole beneficiary of the estate. On 10-18-10, the decedent's will was admitted for probate and Petitioner was appointed Executor with full IAEA, and letters were issued on 10-19-10.
- No creditor's claims have been filed.
- Inventory and Appraisal cannot be filed until both the elder abuse action and partnership action are concluded, as the primary issue in both centers around disputes regarding ownership interests. A partial I&A was submitted to the probate referee in Jan. 2011; however, it was not filed. Counsel is unaware of the reason why. Further inquiries will be made.
- Under IAEA, Mary signed a Transfer and Assumption Agreement involving John Deere Construction and Forestry Company for a skiploader and by such agreement transferred a contracted dated 12-12-07 to Whitney Oaks Dairy, the family partnership. Notice of Proposed Action was given to all persons whose interest was or may be affected by the transfer and no objections were served; therefore, the contract was transferred on or after 1-25-11.
- The estate is not in a condition to be closed because a final I&A and other related documents (i.e., tax returns) cannot be completed until the partnership action has concluded and the time within which to file creditor's claims may not have expired.
- Mary estimates that the additional time needed to close this estate administration will not exceed six (6) months.

Mary prays for an order granting a six (6) month extension to close estate administration and such further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Janet Appleton filed a supporting declaration indicating that her home is open for visits.

Petitioner filed a supplemental declaration on 10-19-12 indicating that since her petition, she has been refused visits unless they are with the mother. Zepure Attashian, attorney for the temporary guardian, told her the reason her visits are being refused is because Petitioner intimidated the temporary guardian by saying she was having her followed. This accusation is not true.

Petitioner states the temporary guardian knows that Rachel (Mother) will not allow Petitioner to see Zachary during her visits because she is upset that Petitioner supported the petition for guardianship, and feels that if Petitioner is there, Zachary will not bond with her. The temporary guardian's refusal to let Petitioner see Zachary appears to stem from the fact that she was told by Janet Appleton that Petitioner was retiring and planned to move to Fresno to see her daughter and grandson more frequently. Ms. Appleton thought the temporary guardian would be pleased to hear that, but instead was distressed.

Petitioner states she has never been a threat to Zachary or to Elaine Thomas (temporary guardian).

Petitioner proposes a revised visitation schedule. See Declaration.

1. Petitioner filed "Proof of Personal Service" showing service on the attorneys for Temporary Guardian and Mother, but the parties were not served directly with a Notice of Hearing.

The Court may require continuance for direct service pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court 7.51 and Probate Code §§ 1220, 1214.

The prior order passing the property 100% to Petitioner cannot be reinstated as it is now known that there is a second heir and such order was not appropriate. Petitioner states the decedent was survived by Petitioner and by Sharon Beasley, the daughter of the decedent's predeceased son. The estate consists of real property and a checking account.

Following her mother's death, Petitioner mistakenly believed that she was the sole heir and petitioned the Court, in pro per, for an Order Determining Succession to the real property. Based on the representations in the Petition, the Court granted that petition.

Petitioner subsequently learned that Ms. Beasley was also an heir and she had provided inaccurate information to the Court. Petitioner now understands that Ms. Beasley is entitled to a 50% interest in the property.

Petitioner retained counsel to file a petition to vacate the order, and at the hearing, the Court vacated the order, but indicated that further order would require joinder to the petition by Ms. Beasley.

Petitioner now states that Ms. Beasley has not returned calls. Her refusal to communicate with counsel has made it impossible for Petitioner to obtain the joinder requested by the Court, and Petitioner remains unable to proceed with administration of the intestate estate.

Therefore, Petitioner request the Court reinstate the prior order and declare that Petitioner succeeds to the property. Alternatively, Petitioner requests further instruction.

Response to Objection to Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 07/02/12 by the Public Administrator/Petitioner states: The Deputy Public Administrator assigned to this matter was Noe Jimenez. He conducted the following investigation to determine the lack of assets in the estate:

- a. He twice went to the property at 3039 North 7th Street, Fresno, CA 93703 to meet with David L. Jimenez (decedent's son). He left his business card for David to contact him regarding the estate as Noe does not have David's phone number. Noe never received a return call from David or any other response to his business cards.
- b. He spoke by phone to Conrad (decedent's son), who provided details of the decedent's assets. Conrad reported that his father deeded the real property to him a couple of months before he died. Noe verified this transaction with Chicago Title. The employee handling the transaction had no concerns about the decedent's capacity to transfer title to his son.
- c. Conrad further reported that the decedent had also given him some personal items before his death, including his service revolver, badge, and similar items. Conrad further reports that when their father died, his brother David removed Raymond Sandoval (decedent's foster son) from the house on North 7th Street. Conrad reported that his father had some items in the residence but David would not allow him to enter the residence, even though the property belonged to him. Conrad confirmed that all personal items were transferred months before the decedent's death.
- d. Noe spoke with David Camenson, attorney for the Objectors, on three separate occasions. Mr. Camenson never asked about or offered information about any assets.
- e. Noe spoke to Conrad regarding the vehicles. Conrad confirmed that the decedent gave David's daughter, Janet Sellers, a Ford Windstar by signing a DMV form in July 2011. He further reported that the decedent gave Conrad's ex-wife, Anna DiFalco, the 1987 Toyota Cressida four years before the decedent died. Although the Objectors provided title to two vehicles, investigation revealed that neither belonged to the decedent at the time of his death.

Based on this information, Petitioner prays that:

1. The objections of David L. Jimenez and Raymond Sandoval be denied in their entirety; and
2. The Public Administrator's report be settled as prayed.

Response of Conrad Jimenez to Objection to Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 07/02/12 states: the two vehicles objectors refer to in their objection were not owned by the decedent at the time of his death as he had transferred ownership of both of them. The vehicle identified as a 1987 Toyota was transferred in 2009 to Anna Maria DiFalco and the 1995 Ford was transferred to Janet Sellers. Respondent further states that as to the "personal property" which is not specifically itemized in the Objection, he is personally aware that most all of the personal property of the decedent was either disposed of by the decedent or had little or no value at the date of his death. Even if there is any merit to the claim that the assets referred to in the Objection may be subject to probate court jurisdiction, all items referred to would be included within Probate Code §§ 13100-13116 as personal property that can be disposed of by the "Affidavit Procedure for Collection or Transfer of Personal Property". Therefore, even if the personal representative could assert ownership or control over any specific personal property asset, by his/her consent there would be nothing in a probate estate to administer. Further, the continuation of an essentially valueless estate could expose the estate to charges and expenses, which it should not incur and cannot afford. If the Objectors have any further information in reference to alleged "estate assets" they can and should communicate that information, with supporting documentation, to the public administrator. To the extent that the miscellaneous personal property described in the Objection is alleged to be the only basis to retain the personal representative, these are insufficient grounds to require the continuation of this probate proceedings. Respondent requests that the Objection be overruled and that the request for discharge by the public administrator be granted.

Supplemental Report of Administrator of Insolvent Estate and Request for Final Discharge filed 10/09/12 states: Upon the Objectors providing more information to the Petitioner, the Petitioner conducted further investigation including interviewing several additional people. The further investigation yielded no new information and Petitioner refers the Court to their Response to Objection filed 07/02/12.

The Public Administrator Prays for an Order that:

1. The final report be settled, allowed and approved as filed on 05/30/12; and
2. He be discharged as administrator of this estate.

	Petitioner states Dixie is currently residing in a drug induced home and being mistreated and neglected. Petitioner states she was caring for Dixie up until one month ago until she was abruptly taken out of Petitioner's care. She is sick with three infections that have been ongoing for over a month. Petitioner is concerned for her well-being as she is not with mother, father or family, but with the father's girlfriend. The father's record includes child endangerment and domestic disputes. Christina was arrested recently for DUI and possession of controlled substance and paraphernalia. On the date of arrest 11-30-12, she was supposed to have Dixie in her care, but no one was aware of Dixie's whereabouts at that time, including the father. Christina has been known to leave Dixie at random known drug houses while she parties and goes to the casino.
	Petitioner states the police have been called on several occasions in regards to erratic and violent behavior stemming from Christina toward the father, the mother, and the mother's ex. She retaliated by making false report of a break-in. Petitioner states she has expressed her concerns to her brother and was told to stay out of it, and if she didn't he would retaliate. Petitioner states she has left him alone, but he continues to harass her and make accusations, including calling CPS to say Petitioner is an unfit mother. An attorney suggested that she try to gain guardianship. Petitioner states she did not call CPS because she does not want her niece in foster care. She loves her niece, and her brother knows this, or he wouldn't have put Dixie in her care for over 2 years.
	Petitioner includes numerous declarations from family and friends in support.
